Amusements.

Gnovan's Thearan.—The "Bivals," as prewented last evening, attracted a large and fashionable audience, who readily appreciated the masterly efforts of Sheridan, as displayed in this his most brillian, and effective effective dramatic effort. The company performed the piece in a manner highly creditable, nor onives, in a spirit of just criticism, clide any individual of fir. Grover's escollent company, for the comedy has nev's before been so well performed as it was last evening.

excellent company, for the comedy has never before been so well performed as it was last evening.

To-night the company, in its greatest comical strength, appears in two really amusing pieces. The performance will commence with the popular three act comedy entitled. "Maried Life," in which Mr. Setchell will assume the character of Mr. Henry Dove, and Mrs. Letty Hough that of Mrs. Henry Dove, supported by Phillips, Bakes, Ward, Edwards, Mrs. Henry Dove, Springled by Phillips, Bakes, Ward, Edwards, Mrs. Henry Dove, supported by Phillips, Bakes, Ward, Edwards, Mrs. Henry Dove, supported by Phillips, Bakes, Ward, Edwards, Mrs. Henry Dove, supported by Phillips, Bakes, Ward, Edwards, Mrs. Henry Dove, and Mrs. Henry Hough Henry Dove, and Mrs. Henry Henry Dove, and Mrs. The performance with the "Murmmy," with Mr. Setchell in the great assembly of our opera-loving public in this place. The performance consisted of Donizette's brilliant opera, "La Figlia del Regimento," with Mrs. Kellogg as Maria, and Brignoll and Susini in the two principsis made roles, Miss Kellogg is one of the very best Marias we have ever heard, and fairly rivals Jonny Lind; Brignoll and Susini were as good as usual. Uttachalk gave some of his most splendid performances on the piano.

This evening we are to have "La Pavorita," with Mradame de Lusan as Leonorar Madame de Lusan is, like Miss Kellogg, an American lady, who is regarded as one of the very best singers of the day. She will cartainly do Justice to the great part of Leonora, in which she will be ably assisted by Brignoll in his great character as Fernando.

Susini, as Batthazer, has no rival, and Amodio will appear in his unrivalled character of Canternuay.—The very laughable negro farce, by Harry Rice, entitled, "The Haunted Hotel," allorded much amusemant to the large audience present last night. The beautiful ballet, "Massantello," danced by six of the attractive young ladies belonging to the Canterbury company, is greatly admired and enthusiastically applauded. The astonishing feat, by Christic, "The Leap for Life," together with the other feats of the accomplished gymnas s, Lowis and Carlstie, attract much attended. The great challenge dance, by four performers, will form a part of to-night's programme, and the entre company will appear in new acts, songs, and dances. Go early, and scentro a good seat.

STANLEY & CONANT'S GIGANTIC ILLUSTRATIONS

The Great Southern Rebellion! STANLEY & CONANT'S

Odd Fellows' Hall, ON OR ABOUT THE 27TH INSTANT.

ON OR ABOUT THE 27TH INSTANT.

This comprehensive and rational work was commenced in less than six months site: the breaking out of ho.illities, and has been in steady progress ever since. For it-accomplishment, Meers, Stanley an' Consant have devoted their entire ranges and still, ansisted by a large corps of the best stitle in No pains, labor, or expense has been spared to make this work what it purports to be—a complete pictorial history of the great rebellion.

In it are comprised not only spirited and elaborate pictures in great variety, by artists of high reputation, but also many lingenous and surpristor mechanical effects, never before successfully attempted in works of this kind such as the movement of troops, ships in action, the sunboate on the Western waters, the naval battle is Hampton Boads, &c., &c. may 12

The Old Capitel Prises.

There are now held in the old brick capitel 133 prisoners—103 of whom are prisoners of war, the rest being State prisoners. Among the latter are three females, viz: Mrs. Greenbow, Mrs. Morris, and Mrs. Baxley; all in good health, except such as were slok when committed. From this place have lately been sent, at the request of Gov. Stanley, all the prisoners of war belonging to North Carolina.

In the contrabund (nego) depot there were 3/0 inmates, of all ages and sexes, unemployed. There are a considerable additional number employed daily in clearing up the old camps, Confiscation of Liquor. Yesterday the provost guard visited a lot of low firsh grogeries on Thirds., between I and K, and to the great horror of the keepers, seized the stock in trade of three of them, and promptly rolled the barrels, casks, &c., into the streets. A large crowd collected, and many a longing eye followed the "blue ruin" as it coursed its way down the same gutters, where many a thirsy soul had often been rolled by means of the "tangle-legs." What a pity to waste so much good liquor?" exclaimed more than one blear-eyed scaker, as bottles, barrels, and casks were demolished.

Julus Faultz, living in Murphey's Row, on Sixth street, complained, yesterday, of John and Renard Louper for threats, and the Loupers were arrested by Officer Orown, of the fourth ward. They then complained of Faultz, who is a rag-picker, for creating a nuisance about his establishment, in the accomulation of a "compound of villainous smells," produced by aundry dirty rags, which might have smothered the life out of "Sir John Falstaff" himself. And amount of Datch gibberish was indulged in before the justice, but we believe all parties were dismissed.

We never could comprehend or appreciate the tasts which tolerates a masty, good-for-nothing our around a house. These canines are surely no ornaments, and a great annoyance. Yesterday morning, a vicious dog, beinging to Mr. Aigler, who resides on the Arenue, near the Capitol gate, attacked a young isdy named Goodrick, and bit her about the arms badly before he could be beaten off. The Canal. The Canal.

We again would implore the proper authorities to make an examination of this abominable breeder of disease and receptacle of fith When will the citizens wake up and demand deliverance from the impending pestilence which it is sure to bring? Many valuable lives and much distress may be saved by timely precaution.

A man, calling bineelf Bateman Waldon, was discovered, yesterday by Officer Crown of the fourth ward, walking the streets in an appearantly demented condition. He was without shoes, and his feet were blistered with traveling. He says he has been a soldier, and belonged to the Gist New York regiment.
